For the first time an examiner has come to unlock the most significant mystery from the most influential figure in human history, how he thought, how he lived and most of all, how he defined his teachings and purpose in life. These insights will lift the conscience toward a far greater appreciation of who Jesus was, and unravel the most perplexing issues confronting his time era. The author focuses on resolving deadly religious psychological techniques left unchallenged from the dark ages, but still believed today by destructive religions bound in a quagmire of deception. The insights will leave the reader wondering why it has taken this long to discover these reasoned findings. The conclusions are so practical, you too will wonder how so many could be so taken in all these years. Drawing upon 13 years of experience in the field of Questioned Document work and working as an apprentice under his father, who was the leading instructor in this field and who also worked several years on the DEAD SEA SCROLLS, the author brings an enlightened perception not revealed in any commentary on the Bible.

Typically graduates from Biblical colleges continue to perpetuate the same doctrine passed down from their instructors - generation after generation. Does it seem logical that God would produce a book used as a guide for men to live by - yet it requires alleged experts to explain practically every sentence? And to follow, why are there so many disagreeing religions in the world, yet all claim the same heritage from the same Torah within the Bible? Is it reasonable to believe that God would inspire this human endeavor to formulate a book of the law with so many contradicting statements?

Many questions you have regarding the Bible will quickly be resolved. For many, this book will prompt further research. Much research is yet to be done - this book will be the catalyst.

QUALIFICATIONS OF THE AUTHOR

My father Keith Parkinson worked 30 years as an investigator and as the first Questioned Document Examiner for the State of Idaho. He was also one of the leading instructors in the field of Questioned Document work and sat on the Board of Directors for the World Association of Document Examiners.

My mother a Document Examiner as well, was also a handwriting Expert for 12 years. Being raised by two experienced instructors allowed me to learn both of these fields of study at a very rapid pace. I soon became the youngest court qualified Document Examiner in America. By the time I turned 19 years of age I had worked well over 50 criminal and civil cases.

From 1979 to 1993 it was my primary job as a Document Examiner to make comparisons and determine if documents whether handwritten or typed had been tampered with in any way, and also determine if questioned handwriting was genuine or not. In many cases I had to testify in court for the dead party who had written a family will, upon later, was questioned by a fellow family member. I had the unique opportunity to work criminal cases as an apprentice under my father who headed up the Questioned Document Department for the Bureau of Investigations in Boise, Idaho. For eight years I also handled civil and criminal cases in a private practice.

Studying for long periods of time and paying close attention to details is required as a Document Examiner. I was hired primarily by attorneys for my letter of opinion concerning the authenticity behind particular questioned handwriting and the authenticity behind the questioned document itself. By the time I joined (the World Association of Document Examiners) in the late 1980's, I had worked over 135 criminal and civil cases under the supervision of my father. The advantage of using a Questioned Document Examiner is that the Examiner is trained not to have a vested interest or an association with any party concerning the questioned subject matter. The Examiner needs to think independent from all other predisposed minds and concentrate for long periods of time on making comparisons. Religious Scribes and Scholars are subject to personal institutional beliefs and payroll checks derived from the same institutions and are not professionally trained in spurious writings and spurious tamperings. Their field of expertise is essential to understanding literal translations, interpretations and transliterations of scripture.

One of the unusual courses I was forced to take involved Handwriting Analysis founded by Milton N. Bunker in 1929. This controversial system, known as Grapho-Analysis, uses stroke analysis to provide insight into personality traits and the evaluation of a writer's personal mental tendencies. Theoretically a person writes with their mind and not with their hand. All of us that write, leave habitual strokes across a page that are peculiarly characteristic to ourselves. These peculiarities differentiate us from most other authors. When found in sufficient numbers, these peculiarities become identifying similarities. These strokes are primarily caused by the mind and the eye working together in conjunction causing subconscious habitual memory. I found that learning this handwriting technique was valuable as a Document Examiner because this system devoted a lot of time and energy in training the eye and mind toward identification purposes. So even though Questioned Document work is completely different from the study of Grapho-Analysis, they both share an intense study on the strokes made by authors for identification purposes.

In the early 1970s my father was asked to work on a particular section of The Dead Sea Scrolls. I was very young at that time, but I was fascinated by looking at the handwriting of a particular scroll, thousands of years old, in my fathers examination room. Later when I was much older and qualified, as part of my training process, my father asked me to work on this same section of the Dead Sea Scrolls that he had worked 15 years prior. I was given an exact duplicate copy to work on and was given the same question posed to my father. “How many authors are involved on this particular section of the Dead Sea Scroll submitted, if any? ”

Unlike religious biblical Scholars, Document Examiners are taught not to have predisposed beliefs or affiliations with religious parties concerning the examination of documents. Using this approach I am ultimately providing the reader a non-atheistic, non-Christian, non-Catholic, non-Jewish and non-Islamic opinion. So by providing a non-religious qualified opinion, the reader can be assured that the opinions rendered inside are without dogmatic influence. I can then appeal to minds predisposed toward logic, rather than religious or atheistic influence.

This book will address the what, where, when and how the Holy Virus originated and why it still continues unabated to this day. The other important issues dealt with include:

1. The actual purpose of Jesus and the final accomplishment behind his resurrection.
2. The hidden mystery behind the blood and flesh of Jesus.
3. The infallible Bible claim by Christianity.

PREFACE

THE HOLY VIRUS is an examination of the authors that composed the King James Holy Bible. The research will focus on the foreign Priests and Scribes appointed by Babylonian and Persian kings during the exile era of Israel in 586 B.C. to 444 B.C. The HOLY VIRUS focuses on the belief behind the insidious Old Testament blood covenant that eventually evolved into a human blood offering doctrine promoted by Paul within the New Testament (under the guise of a Holy merciful God). The Holy Virus was first introduced within the Torah of the King James Bible as "The Blood of the Covenant" upon Mount Sinai in Exodus 24:8. The Exodus story presented a nomadic tribe accepting the LORD'S Blood Covenant, upon which required the sprinkling of blood from freshly killed animals toward an entity referred to in the King James Bible as THE LORD. This blood covenant did not satisfy their conscience for long, so the Priests made a religious institution out of the ritual. The ritual served to sustain the psychological power Priests enjoyed over the people. The ripple effect is felt throughout the whole religious world today and has even influenced the secular judicial systems with its vindictive nature without so much as a whiff of suspicion. The Torah itself (a collection of five books allegedly written alone by Moses) becomes the main host and carrier for this trojan horse doctrine, from which it rides along its pages, unsuspected by main-line religions now known as Judaism, Islam, Christianity and Catholicism. As this blood doctrine spreads its toxic venom around the world influencing the minds and hearts of all those that enter into its religious portals - along comes a man labeled the King of the Jews, whose life defied the Jewish/Babylonian Priests and transcended them with his doctrine of life by evidence of his resurrection. A group of unknown authors in the New Testament blatantly revised this man's character by editing out his most important commandments and teachings by replacing him with a mythological substitute, taught by a Roman/Pharisee, purporting to be his Apostle. Using the Bible along with comparison examinations I will expose the Babylonian revised writings from the original authors and the true historical teachings of Jesus still left unedited within the New Testament King James Bible. The synopsis behind my research is to establish that the real historical Jesus never shed his blood on the cross for anyone's sins, as taught by modern Christianity, but rather Jesus took away these beliefs in blood offerings by evidence of his teachings and resurrection. The Torah was in part written by foreign occult authors utilizing occult tactics (mainly the implementation of blood offerings) for the purpose of manipulating peoples minds. The evidence of this Man's teachings and resurrection exposed these religious tactics and broke their psychological hold upon the conscience of mankind. Mankind didn't need a Saviour to shed his blood, but rather mankind needed the teachings from Jesus, so that man could regenerate himself from the inside, rather than depend on outward bloody sacrifices. By removing these occult beliefs, men could move forward towards a reliable knowledge of his Creator.

In my personal communications with Catholics and Christians, I have discovered there is a vast number of people having mutual concerns over their Bibles. Upon these personal discussions I was requested to examine their Bibles and release my findings according to their concerns. The purpose of this book is to uncover the original intent of the authors composing the Bible and for the first time this book will explain the most important mystery in the Bible. What the blood of Jesus actually means as recorded in;

Matthew 26:28? "For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins."

NOTE FROM THE PUBLISHER

You are about to set upon a path of discovery. The information found in the following pages will awaken any curious reader regarding the teaching in Christianity, Catholicism, Judaism and the Muslim religion. Long held beliefs that are thought to be from God are exposed as false - with sound evidence - right from the scriptures themselves.

This is not another “code discovery” within the text of the King James Bible or re-interpretation of scripture, but rather facts brought to light using dates, contradictions and mis-interpretations of various languages within the text.

But YOU have to read this book to make an informed decision - not take the word from some “authority” whom you have given the power. We all have a conscience with an ability to reason. This book is presented in such a way that you will soon recognize the fallacies and contradictions within the pages of the Bible. You will continue to recognize the value and good in the Bible - but you will also see what has been twisted to make Christ’s message false and anti-Christian.

Portions of this book still have me wondering and wanting further research. I can only hope more answers will come. But what I have discovered herein has answered or confirmed many contradictions found to be unresolved in my reading of the scriptures. It also has answered one very large question: Why, with all the new converts to Christianity, are we not a kinder, safer and more loving world? Wisdom should be more evident with the advance of the spiritual life... I see that the opposite is paramount throughout the world. Hopefully this book will add both wisdom and sanity to a troubled world.

THE HOLY VIRUS

THE FUNDAMENTAL RULE IN THE ENGAGEMENT OF RATIONAL THOUGHT IS THAT IF YOUR BASIC PREMISE IS WRONG, THEN ALL SPECIFICS THAT FOLLOW IN YOUR CHAIN OF REASONING ARE ALSO FLAWED. IN FACT, THEY ARE WORTHLESS. TO BUILD A CASE WITH AN ARRAY OF SEEMINGLY PERSUASIVE POINTS IS MEANINGLESS IF ONE'S STARTING POINT IS FLAWED.
